

Red Chilli (Laal Mirchi) – Premium Export Quality from India

□ Product Overview

We are a trusted exporter of premium quality Red Chilli (Laal Mirchi) from India. Our red chillies are known for their vibrant red color, strong pungency, rich aroma, and high capsaicin content. Carefully sorted and graded, our chillies meet international export standards and are suitable for whole spice as well as powder processing industries.

□ Sourcing Details

Our red chillies are directly sourced from major chilli-growing regions in India:

Maharashtra (Sangli, Kolhapur)

Andhra Pradesh (Guntur region)

Karnataka

Telangana

These regions are globally recognized for producing high-quality chillies with strong pungency and bright color.

We maintain direct sourcing from farmers and mandi networks to ensure consistent supply and competitive pricing.
